

2010 Calendar Year Important Dates

Your birthday!

- Motor vehicle license plates expire on the last day of the month prior to your birthday, there is a grace period that ends at midnight on your birthday. Many people are mistaken in thinking that you have until the end of your birth-month to renew your license plates but that is not the case. You can renew up to 90 days before your birthday. (This includes passenger cars, some leased cars, recreational vehicles, small trailers, motorcycles, and trucks under 5,000 lbs)
- Other items that are to be renewed on your birthday include: boat registrations, parking permits, and Florida driver license (every 6-8 years)

Annually:

- Hunting and fishing licenses and permits are renewable 12 months from the date issued

January:

- Property taxes paid by January 31st receive a 2% discount

February:

- Property taxes paid by February 28th receive a 1% discount

March:

- Property taxes are due in full by March 31st

April:

- Taxes become delinquent, certified funds required to make payment. Interest penalty of 3% added to amount due for real estate taxes
- Mid-April advertising fees added to real estate accounts; $2.00 advertising fee and interest penalty of 15% per month added to tangible accounts

May:

- Advertising costs are added to tangible taxes
- List of delinquent property taxes advertised in Citrus County Chronicle
- Company-owned vehicles under 5,000 lbs license plate renewal deadline; grace period ends midnight, June 30th

June:

- On or before June 1st, tax certificate sale (online at bidcitrus.com)
- June 30th company owned boat registrations and boat dealer registrations expire

November:

- Discount period for real and tangible personal property taxes begins. Taxes paid by November 30th receive a 4% discount

December:

- Property taxes paid by December 31st receive a 3% discount
- License plate renewal for trucks over 5,000 lbs. are due December 31st including truck-trailers, semi-trailers, and others.
- Mobile homes in rental parks must renew window stickers by December 31st